Booking Conditions

1. Bath Recreation Limited can only consider bookings for activities that fall within its charitable purpose.
2. Hirers must demonstrate that they have the relevant capability, structure, resources and safety measures in place for the proper operation of the activity.
3. Hirers must ensure that the activity will be conducted in accordance with "best practice" as defined by the governing body applicable to the activity and must adhere to minimum coaching qualifications and participant ratios as recommended by such governing body. If so required, Hirer's must forward details of coaches' qualifications with this Application.

Some activities will require local authority support, for further information please refer to Bath and North East Somerset Council's website for further details.
4. The ground / premises may only be hired for the purpose declared on the Application for Use form and activities can only be undertaken on the designated pitch / area requested and agreed.
5. Bath Recreation does not hold an alcohol licence, therefore no alcohol is permitted on site.
6. The Hirer shall be responsible for the payment of the appropriate charges and for the due observance of the attached Terms and Conditions of Use.
7. No deliveries of equipment or merchandise for an event will be accepted by Bath Recreation Limited without prior written agreement and notification of expected goods.
8. By signing the Application for Use form the person doing so shall be deemed to be duly authorized to commit the Hirer to full responsibility for the hire in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Use. If the hire is made on behalf of more than one organization, each organization shall be jointly and severally responsible as aforesaid.
9. Bath Recreation Limited reserves the right to adapt the Terms and Conditions of Use as may be appropriate for the hire and reasonable notice of such changes will be given.
10. Bath Recreation reserves the right to require the Hirer to produce evidence of adequate Public Liability Insurance appropriate to the activity.

Bookings

1. For all bookings the Application for Use form below is required to be completed by the Hirer with all necessary details and the completed form must be to:

operations@bathrec.co.uk OR

Bath Recreation Limited,
Bath Recreation Ground, Pulteney Mews, Bath BA2 4DS
2. Bookings become effective upon written acceptance from Bath Recreation Limited and upon receipt of any deposits/payments due and the signing of the Terms and Conditions of Use.
3. All booking periods shall include time necessary for erecting and dismantling equipment is appropriate.
4. Acceptance of the booking is for the dates requested only.
5. There is neither guarantee nor obligation on the part of Bath Recreation Limited that the booking will be extended or renewed.
6. Bookings for large events are likely to require a formal Licence which will be subject to further conditions. Organisers of such events will be required to attend at least one site meeting with the staff to discuss specific requirements and agree specific terms.
7. If the use is required of the Recreation Ground Pavilion, the Recreation Ground Sports Hub, the Glasshouse Playing Fields Pavilion or for the playing of Cricket on the Glasshouse Playing Fields, the Application for Use should so state because additional specific terms and conditions apply for those facilities.
